Description

Empire-Style Mahogany Chest of Drawers - Freestanding Columns - Marble Top - 19th Century A beautiful and imposing Empire-style mahogany chest of drawers, featuring an elegant, architecturally designed front framed by two freestanding columns. The upper section opens with a wide waist drawer, compartmentalized internally, followed by three large drawers fitted with circular knobs and gilded bronze lock plates. The side panels are accentuated by two substantial mahogany columns, adorned with rings, capitals, and bases in finely chased gilded bronze, characteristic of the Empire decorative style. The front features a beautiful, symmetrically arranged pattern of flamed mahogany, which particularly highlights the wood's grain. The piece is topped by a thick gray-black marble top,
