Description

Elegant Art Deco ring dating from around 1940, crafted in platinum and featuring refined engraved and openwork detailing. Set at the center is a round brilliant-cut diamond weighing approximately 0.80 ct, highlighted by a classic prong setting that brings out the stone's beauty. The center diamond is flanked by two small brilliant-cut diamonds weighing approximately 0.03 ct each, set within the shoulder decoration. The platinum work, with its geometric and finely chiseled motifs, gives the ring the characteristic charm of Art Deco jewelry from that era. Details: Period: Art Deco, circa 1940 Metal: platinum Weight: 3.30 g Center diamond: brilliant cut, approximately 0.80 ct Side diamonds: brilliant cut, approximately 0.03 ct each Total diamond weight: approximately 0.86
