Description

Elegant pair of small pine wood mirrors, finely carved and gilded with pure gold leaf. The frames, featuring a refined garland of flowers, are completed with a base decorated with phytomorphic motifs. Each mirror retains its original mirror, and has a practical hook for hanging. The mirrors are also equipped with two iron and wood arms each for candle holders, therefore also functional for lighting, which give further uniqueness and elegance. Thanks to their small size, these mirrors are suitable for placing in small rooms, such as bathrooms or intimate corners of the house. Of great elegance and class, they represent a furnishing element capable of embellishing any space with style and attention to detail. Typical Tuscan manufacture from the early 19th century.
