Description

A superb cane with a bamboo shaft, a metal ferrule, a ring that is likely gold (to be verified), and an exceptional carved boxwood handle depicting Andromeda chained to the rock. The depiction of this mythical female figure is absolutely remarkable in every respect. The body evokes femininity with long hair flowing down her back and a pose that perfectly symbolizes the myth. The carving is of high artistic quality, executed with great finesse, and in perfect condition. This is an extremely rare walking stick with splendid artistic and technical qualities. A truly beautiful collector's item. Length: 89 cm
Handle height: 12 cm
