Description

649 A magnificent Asian decorative object made of hardstone resembling green jade, dating from the mid-20th century. This remarkable piece features a carved, openwork vase, richly adorned with delicately chiselled branches and foliage. A finely carved bird can be admired on the front, subtly nestled amidst the boughs. The openwork craftsmanship highlights the artisan's skill and the stone's beautiful translucency. It measures 22 cm in height (including its original wooden base) and 12 cm in width. The piece is in very good overall condition and comes in its luxurious, fabric-lined original presentation box.
