Description

Oil on canvas depicting a marsh landscape typical of the Camargue, with a white horse in the foreground. The work is rendered using large, thick areas of paint and impasto that highlight the details. Signed "d'Orcino" in the lower right corner. Toussaint Ambrogiani, known as d'Orcino (1913-1986), was a Corsican painter and the brother of the famous artist Pierre Ambrogiani. He chose the pseudonym "d'Orcino" in reference to his family's hometown, Saint-André d'Orcino. Trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Marseille, he was best known for his views of Provence and the Camargue. His style is characterized by dynamic brushstrokes and a vibrant interplay of textures. Slight wear on the frame. Good overall condition. 20th-century work. Dimensions: Framed:

49 x 67.5 cm Artwork: 35.5 x 54 cm
