Description

A magnificent set of 12 Bohemian crystal stemmed glasses, produced in the mid-20th century. Heavy and of very high quality, each glass is cut with finesse and precision. Exuding great elegance, renowned for their historic craftsmanship originating in the Czech Republic, and highly sought after by collectors and connoisseurs of refined decor, these glasses feature a "harlequin" and "variegated" style. Cobalt blue (or ultramarine), ruby red (or cranberry), violet (or amethyst), amber yellow (or topaz), and chartreuse green. Very trendy. In perfect condition: no chips! Height: 20 cm Mouth diameter: 9 cm
