Description

This magnificent Saint-Clément ceramic vase is an iconic piece of 1950s design (the Mid-Century Modern period), perfect for enhancing a selection of vintage decor or a collection of artistic earthenware. Add a touch of retro and graphic elegance to your home with this superb fine earthenware vase, crafted in the workshops of the renowned French Saint-Clément factory. This piece stands out for its plump silhouette with generous curves and flared neck, perfectly embodying the postwar modernist movement. Its decor of fine two-tone vertical stripes (amber yellow and satin black) creates a striking luminous contrast that beautifully catches the eye. The interior of the neck, entirely lined with a vibrant sunny yellow, adds a refined depth to the overall design. Whether standing alone on a teak
