Description

A pair of swivel armchairs designed by Carl Eric Klote for Overman MFG in the 1960s, these pieces are a significant example of Nordic creativity. These armchairs stand out for their enveloping design and lightweight construction. Upholstered in mustard-colored stretch fabric, they retain their vintage charm. The chrome-plated metal base ensures stability, even though one of the eight plastic feet is missing. Ideal for those who appreciate Scandinavian design and want an authentic piece from that era.
