Description

This mirror exudes a natural charm and features intricate carvings with slightly brutalist accents. Its slanted frame, 6 cm wide, is carved with a honeycomb pattern. The small honeycomb grooves, set very close together, give the mirror its distinctive charm. A round rod runs along the inner edge of the mirror, adorned with elongated grooves arranged in a cross pattern; next to it is a small spacer shaped like a flattened sphere. A decorative and warm mirror in a comforting honey hue.
