

Pennsylvania Furniture, 19th-century American Folk Art

1 200 EUR

Signature : Etats Unis

Period : 19th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Solid wood

Length : 108 cms

Height : 116 cms

Depth : 44 cms

Description

This piece of furniture was used to store apple cakes. It is a piece associated with 19th-century American folklore. It arrived in France via a transatlantic crossing in the 1940s and belonged to an English teacher.

Dealer

Galerie Franck Accart

Paintings, drawings, objects of curiosity and archaeology

Tel : 01 40 20 90 28

Mobile : 06 87 07 88 49

29 rue de Richelieu

Paris 75001