Description

Important vase with rich enamel decoration on copper, "The Village," by Jules Sarlandie. A lovely and rare model, richly decorated all over the vase with figures on the road in front of their homes. It features several buildings, a stream, a village in the background, and beautiful trees in autumn colors. It is rare to see such rich decoration on this type of piece. Note the multitude of colors and the quality of the workmanship. The photos speak for themselves. A large model for this type of vase, measuring 20 cm in height and 12 cm in diameter. Signed "J Sarlandie Limoges" in gold on the base of the vase, circa 1910-1920. Very good condition, with a few small cracks in the glaze near the neck, but no chips and no significant damage. Superb Limoges enamel vase, with a renowned signature,
