Description

Romeo Rega Dresser and Nightstands Six-drawer dresser and nightstands in black lacquered wood with a design featuring soft lines and rounded corners, characteristic of the sophisticated style of Italian designer Romeo Rega in the 1970s. A distinctive feature is the refined green Alcantara upholstery, which covers not only the drawers but also the exterior side panels, creating a sophisticated textural contrast between the matte fabric surface, the glossy black lacquer, and the chrome-plated steel trim. The drawer fronts, framed by metal accents, are enhanced by integrated chrome-plated steel handles with an elegant, geometric design. The glass top completes the ensemble, amplifying the brightness of the surfaces and emphasizing the glamorous and architectural aesthetic typical of Romeo Rega's work. A sculptural and striking piece of furniture, striking a perfect balance between luxurious materials and formal rigor. The set is in excellent condition and has no defects, except for a slight chip in the glass as shown in the photo; replacement is available upon request. It bears no signatures and is attributed to the artist because it was designed in his style. CHEST OF DRAWERS
