Description

Curved Art Deco Cabinet Refined curved cabinet from the Art Deco period (France, circa 1930). An extraordinary example of modernist cabinetmaking from France. The piece stands out for its bold and sophisticated concave curved front, designed to highlight the natural movement and optical depth of the fine flamed burl veneer. Details of the Piece's Style and Architecture Art Deco cabinetmaking: the arched yet rigorous lines reflect the canons of 1930s French design, where the geometric purity of the forms meets the exoticism and luxury of burl wood. Upper double-door compartment: curved-profile doors with original solid wood spherical knobs; inside, there is a dividing shelf, ideal as a bar cabinet, secrétaire, or storage for valuables. Drawer front: four spacious drawers with linear sliding action, featuring burl wood fronts with a continuous pattern and matching pairs of turned knobs. Architectural base: slender, resting on saber-shaped supports that extend up the sides with an exposed, connected upright, lending the piece a sense of airiness and formal elegance. A rare piece of furniture with a striking presence, perfect as a chiffonier, tall entryway sideboard, or bar cabinet for interiors inspired by eclectic styles or authentic Art Deco. It is in excellent condition and has no defects to report other than slight signs of aging. DIMENSIONS: Height 151 cm; Width 104 cm; Depth 50 cm
