Description

"The Cheaters," an oval pastel depicting card players in late 18th-century attire. This amusing subject is rare; we see a young gentleman who does not seem to know the game very well being helped by an older man who, at the same time, is tipping off his opponent--a young woman who already has an ace hidden behind her back.

Period: late 18th or early 19th century. Original frame, in fair condition; overall dimensions: 84 x 73 cm. Shipping available; shipping and handling charges apply.
