Description

Small chest of drawers in the Louis XV-Louis XVI transitional style, French craftsmanship from the late 19th century, circa 1870-1890. Made of veneered wood, it features a slightly curved front with four drawers decorated with delicate floral and foliate marquetry, accented by contrasting wood moldings. Its traditional construction, with solid-wood drawers joined by hand-carved dovetail joints, places its manufacture in the second half of the 19th century. It is embellished with rich gilded bronze hardware: pull handles, lock plates, long foliate-motif finials, apron trim, and foot pieces. The sides are adorned with veneered panels framed by fillets. The piece rests on four slightly arched legs and is topped by a beautiful red marble top veined with white, featuring a molded edge. This chest of drawers
