

Meiji-period Satsuma: Polychrome And Gilded Ceramic Gourd-shaped Vase

260 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 37

Description

Meiji-period Satsuma: Polychrome and gilded ceramic gourd vase - Decorated with Asian figures Beautiful ceramic gourd vase, with a double bulge and a long cylindrical neck, featuring a very rich polychrome decoration enhanced by extensive relief gilding. The body is adorned with figures in traditional Asian costumes, rendered in a bold palette of blue, red, green, brown, and gold. The decoration is particularly elaborate, featuring numerous geometric patterns, scrolls, and stylized ornaments highlighted in gold. The upper section features an abundant floral decoration, accompanied by large circular medallions with light-colored backgrounds. The long neck features the same geometric and floral motifs in the same color palette. The reverse side of the base bears a

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

mark painted in red with Asian characters. A beautiful decorative piece, remarkable for the density of its decoration and the luxurious effect of its gilded highlights. Dimensions: height 37 cm - diameter approximately 19 cm. Material: polychrome glazed ceramic. Decor: figures, flowers, and stylized motifs, with gold highlights. Condition: generally good condition, with craquelure in the glaze and signs of age visible in the photographs.