Description

Pair of high-backed armchairs made of turned wood - Armrests carved with animal heads A beautiful pair of large ceremonial armchairs in natural wood, featuring a highly decorative design inspired by furniture from the High Period / Louis XIII style. The armchairs rest on turned legs and posts, joined at the front by a particularly decorative twisted crossbar. The armrests, also twisted, are topped with remarkable carved animal heads, lending the pieces a great deal of character. The tall rectangular backs and wide seats are upholstered in a cashmere-patterned fabric in shades of blue-green, accented in the center by a vertical band featuring a polychrome floral design in red, orange, and green. The upholstery is accented by a row of decorative brass nails. A highly decorative pair with generous
