

Coffee Table, Parisian "volante" Work Table, Louis XV Period, Circa 1750

3 400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Coffee Table, Flying Table, Parisian Craftsmanship, Louis XV Period, 18th Century, circa 1750 Rare and Exceptional Small Flying Table in Solid Mahogany from the Louis XV Period, Resting on Delicately Curved Legs Terminating in Gilded Bronze Feet and Casters. This small rectangular table, which opens via a waist drawer featuring a gilded and chiseled bronze lock plate, is finished with a lovely Sienna-yellow top, with ochre, reddish brown, and purplish tones. It rests on four tall, curved legs, joined by a crossbar. The front corners are rounded, and its top is framed by a wooden molding on three sides. High-quality craftsmanship, superb solid mahogany. Bears the JME mark and the Jurandes hallmark, but we have not found a maker's mark. Comes with its

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

key. Furniture of exceptionally high craftsmanship, featuring simple and refined lines, marked with the JME, the guild hallmark. This table combines practical utility thanks to its very small proportions. Its under-top drawer offers discreet storage. Luxury furniture intended for Parisian apartments in the mid-18th century, likely the work of a master cabinetmaker, such as the pieces by RVLC or BVRB. This table features harmonious and delicate lines. Its attractive proportions make it easy to move and place within your decor; it will blend seamlessly into your space. This remarkable piece, worthy of a master craftsman, features high-end, meticulous finishes that reflect the refinement of Louis XV-era furniture; it will bring charm and prestige to your home. Louis XV-era piece, 18th century, circa 1750. Dimensions: Height: 76 cm Width: 35 cm Depth: 24 cm In Excellent Condition. Please feel free to contact us for any additional information WWW.DANTAN.STORE