Description

Elegant and unique plaque carved from sculptural white marble. Circular in shape, it features the "chrismon" or Christogram at its center, flanked by the Alpha and Omega (the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet), which symbolize eternity. This antique plaque likely originated on a church pediment or formed part of an altar. It is an object of great refinement and historical significance, capable of lending elegance and a touch of antiquity to any setting. Tuscan craftsmanship, dating around the mid-17th century. Dimensions: H x DM 33 x 37cm
