Description

This atmospheric oil painting depicts a shepherd tending a scattered flock of sheep across an expansive mountainous landscape. Broad, confident brushwork establishes rolling areas of ochre, deep green and earthy brown, while distant blue-grey hills dissolve softly beneath a luminous sky. A dramatic bank of cream-coloured clouds, touched with delicate pink, introduces warmth and movement to the otherwise tranquil composition. The diminutive shepherd and flock emphasise the scale of the surrounding countryside, while flashes of red among the foreground vegetation enliven the restrained natural palette. Combining direct observation with expressive handling of colour and light, the work reflects the painterly landscape traditions of the late nineteenth and
