

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Biedermeier-style Painted Glass Box, 19th Century

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Biedermeier-style painted blue glass box, 19th century. An elegant decorative Biedermeier box, dating from the first half of the 19th century, crafted from translucent blue glass of beautiful intensity. Both the cylindrical glass body and the lid are delicately hand-painted with polychrome floral motifs and accented with fine gilded decorations. The decoration consists of small colorful flowers and foliage combined with elegant gilded ornaments, characteristic of Central European decorative arts from the Biedermeier period. The box features a brass or bronze frame with a hinged lid. It rests on an elegant, decorative metal base with scrollwork, ending in spherical feet. A charming example of 19th-century Biedermeier glassware, combining the richness of blue glass with the delicacy of

Dealer

Bruckner's Gallery

Paintings, sculptures, works of art and exceptional furniture

Mobile : +36706381476

falk miksa street 18-20

Budapest 1055

hand-painted and gilded decoration. This box was likely intended to serve as a jewelry box, a box for small precious items, or a keepsake box.