Description

A superb and unique small 17th-century oak Bible box or chest. A small piece of furniture or side table with an exceptional patina. It consists of a chest in the upper section with a beautiful wrought-iron lock that was used to store Bibles. The chest rests on a small table that has a drawer in the base. This is its original table, which is rare since the tables are often lost over time. The table features a beautiful turned base. A rare piece with interesting dimensions and a superb original patina. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our 2,500 m² showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
