Description

A set of eight chairs designed by Silvio Coppola for Bernini, made in the 1960s. These chairs are a prime example of Italian design from that era, featuring a beechwood frame that provides sturdiness and a timeless aesthetic. The leather-upholstered seats and backrests offer comfort and a touch of elegance. The warm-colored leather complements the dark wood perfectly, creating a refined visual contrast. The chairs are in good condition, showing slight signs of wear that attest to their authenticity. Ideal for a living room or dining room with a sophisticated design, these chairs flawlessly combine functionality and style. MOSESE0321773
