Description

An elegant set consisting of a console table and its matching mirror in gilded brass, in the Louis XV / Rococo style. The console features a finely crafted frame adorned with volutes, scrolls, and foliage motifs, resting on four curved legs joined by a crossbar. It is topped by a white marble top, providing a beautiful contrast to the golden hue of the brass. The mirror features the same rich Rocaille decoration, with a particularly decorative openwork frame and a large ornate pediment. The set is in very good condition and makes for a highly decorative piece, ideal for an entryway, living room, or bedroom.
