Description

A stunning cocktail ring in 750/°° (18-karat) yellow gold, featuring an emerald-cut citrine set with four wide yet discreet prongs. The setting features an openwork design of spikes and semicircles, which elegantly elevates the stone while allowing maximum light to pass through, showcasing this superb citrine. The ring band, formed by four wires, reinforces the ring's refined and subtle character. Eagle's head hallmark.
