Description

Louis XVI-style display bookcase in walnut with beveled glass - 19th century Louis XVI-style display bookcase in walnut, 19th century. The front features two large doors with beveled glass panes, revealing an interior fitted with several shelves as well as two small drawers in the lower section. This piece features exquisite cabinetmaking and carving: ornately carved posts, foliage friezes, molded and carved frames, and a prominent arched cornice. The piece is crowned by a remarkable openwork and carved pediment, composed of foliage surrounding a central cartouche. The lower section features a large drawer on the front, adorned with a carved frieze and fitted with bronze handles. The piece rests on four small turned legs. A striking bookcase with substantial proportions, suitable
