Description

MATTHIEU MATÉGOT Red perforated metal umbrella stand with a black metal frame, circa 1950. Elegant perforated metal umbrella stand, signed or attributed to Matthieu Matégot, characteristic of the French designer's innovative approach to metalwork. A beautiful piece of vintage French design, which can also serve as a true decorative piece in an entryway, a contemporary interior, or a collection of furniture from the 1950s-1960s. An original and graphic piece, emblematic of Matégot's modernist aesthetic. Height: 47 cm
