

Fragment Of A Marble Cornice, Probably From The Roman Period, 1st-2nd Century A.d.

850 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Marble

Length : 23

Height : 20

Description

This marble architectural fragment, finely carved with rectangular panels and acanthus leaves, likely belonged to the cornice of a Roman building. H. 20 cm; W. 23 cm (with a hole at the base for mounting on a pedestal) Provenance: auction (purchase receipt)

Dealer

Armand Bazin

Sculpture, peinture, dessin, objets d'art & d'après l'antique

Mobile : 0651447495

145 Boulevard Ney

Paris 75018