

Art Deco Platinum And Diamond Ring - French Craftsmanship, Circa 1930

Description

A stunning Art Deco ring in platinum, featuring a large octagonal bezel with beveled edges, entirely set with diamonds. The geometric composition is centered around two round diamonds in a closed setting, arranged vertically, framing three stepped rectangular diamonds in the center. The design is accentuated by a pavé of diamonds of various sizes that follow the contour of the plate. The openwork setting and the highly architectural construction of the mount are characteristic of Art Deco jewelry from the 1920s and 1930s. Total diamond weight estimated at approximately 3.5 carats. French Art Deco piece, circa 1930. In very good overall condition. Gross weight: 7.5 g

8 400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Platinum

Length : plateau de 2,1 cm environ

Width : plateau de 1,8 cm environ

Diameter : tour de doigt : 61,5 (mise à taille possible)

Dealer

Galerie Cordeau-Oudoux
Collectibles and antique jewelry

la Rochelle 17000