Description

A splendid "Eau de Vie" bottle made of glazed faïence from the Kéraluc factory in Quimper, designed by Pierre Toulhoat (1923-2014). With its quirky shape, the bottle features a hand-painted design in shades of blue on a white background, composed of stylized plant motifs and geometric friezes. The stopper matches the design. The words "EAU DE VIE" appear in a cartouche on either side. The underside bears the stamp "Toul Hoat Keraluc Quimper." A fine example of Pierre Toulhoat's work for Kéraluc, characteristic of the company's production in the 1950s. Dimensions: height approx. 30 cm; width approx. 11 cm. Condition: excellent.
