

Abstract Composition In Blue And Red

Description

This expressive abstract painting, executed in oil on canvas, presents a dynamic arrangement of floating forms suspended against a luminous sky-blue ground. Bold passages of crimson, white, and cobalt intertwine with delicate linear contours, creating a rhythmic composition that balances movement with openness. Touches of warm ochre and golden highlights punctuate the surface, adding depth and visual energy while contrasting beautifully with the cool background. The artist employs confident, gestural brushwork and an intuitive sense of structure, allowing the abstract forms to suggest fragments of organic shapes without becoming representational. Rooted in the traditions of post-war lyrical abstraction, the composition captures a sense of spontaneity,
