Description

Antique corner bookcase made of painted and lacquered wood, featuring polychrome decoration with gallant scenes and landscapes in the 18th-century style. Narrow and slender in shape, it is designed to fit into a corner and features several tiers of stacked shelves above a small cabinet closed by two arched doors. The back panels and side panels are adorned with figures, putti, foliage, and architectural motifs rendered in shades of red, green, and gold. The lower section opens to an interior storage space equipped with a shelf. A 19th-century piece in the style of painted and lacquered furniture inspired by 18th-century decor. Dimensions: height 93 cm; 28 cm per side. The piece has a beautiful patina with paint wear, small chips, and visible signs of use.
