Description

A magnificent and striking large Venetian-style mirror, featuring an ornate, stepped frame entirely decorated with hand-cut and hand-engraved glass set against a cobalt blue glass background. The finely crafted decoration features floral motifs, rocaille, and stylized coats of arms, distributed across shaped panels that alternate between transparent and blue glass, creating a striking chromatic effect of great elegance. The frame is further embellished with cut-glass rosettes placed at the intersections and corners. Venetian craftsmanship from the 1950s, inspired by the 18th century. Venice, 20th century Dimensions: 170 x 125 cm
