Description

Liberty-style mahogany table, made in Italy in the early 20th century, characterized by a distinctive and functional style. The square tabletop is embellished with a band beneath the surface featuring butterfly-motif inlays, which add a striking decorative touch. The frame is supported by four legs connected by upper crossbars, with a yellow cathedral-style glass insert at the center, which lends brightness and originality to the overall design. The table comes with three plywood extension leaves, allowing its size to be adjusted according to your needs, making it ideal for both formal and casual settings. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as completely as possible through the photos. If
