Description

A Barocchetto-style double bed, crafted from walnut in Italy in the early 20th century, is a refined example of period craftsmanship. The frame is embellished with a central inlay of mirrored walnut veneer, which adds depth and character to the design. The frame is crafted from mahogany burl, featuring double scroll-patterned maple fillets that lend elegance and a distinctive touch to the entire piece. Barocchetto stylistic elements are evident in the soft, sinuous lines of the headboard and footboard, creating a harmonious and visually striking ensemble, perfect for classic and sophisticated interiors. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as completely as possible
