Description

A mid-20th-century English-style extendable mahogany table, featuring a mechanical crank system that allows the rectangular tabletop to be extended. The four turned and carved legs, topped with casters, ensure stability and ease of movement. The three mahogany-stained plywood extensions allow the table to be adapted to different space and social needs, making it a versatile piece for both classic and modern settings. Product condition: This item requires restoration and re-polishing due to its age and wear. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as completely as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
