Description

Mario Cavaglieri (1887-1969) "Auch, Rue de Metz" Oil on canvas, 50 × 90 cm Signed lower right and dated "1958" Presented in a high-quality carved wooden frame - Louis XV A beautiful urban view depicting Rue de Metz in Auch, rendered in a free and luminous painterly style. Mario Cavaglieri (1887-1969), an Italian painter who settled in the Gers in 1925, is one of the region's most prominent artistic figures. His painting, characterized by generous brushwork, a free touch, and a luminous palette, vividly captures the landscapes and streets of the Gers. Auch holds a special place in his work, as the artist depicted the town and its surroundings on several occasions
