Description

These six Art Deco-era red wine glasses (which can also be used as water glasses), dating from around 1930, are in perfect condition. They are not stamped because they predate 1936. The crystal is of very high quality, the sound is crystal clear--it's Baccarat! This "Brindisi" model from the famous crystal manufacturer is no longer in production. Since they are vintage pieces, their weights vary slightly. Height: 8.8 cm. Rim diameter: 8 cm. Weight: between 148 and 177 grams. Shipped with an invoice--fast, carefully packaged, and very secure.
