Description

These six Art Deco-era white wine glasses, dating from around 1930, are in perfect condition. They are not stamped because they predate 1936. The crystal is of very fine quality, with a crystal-clear ring--it's Baccarat! This "Brindisi" model from the famous crystal manufacturer is no longer in production. Because they are vintage pieces, their weights vary slightly. Height: 8 cm. Mouth diameter: 7.3 cm. Weight: between 113 and 135 grams. Shipped with an invoice--quick, careful, and very secure.
