Description

Jean VINAY - Wall-mounted metal mirror decorated with two birds and leafy stems. Mirror in the center. Good condition (signs of wear) 20th century. Dimensions: Height: 53 cm. Mirror diameter: 15 cm. Jean Vinay (1907-1978): Best known as a painter, Jean Vinay was a French artist originally from Isère. Throughout his career, he notably painted views of the Seine, bridges, and gardens in Paris. His paintings have been exhibited in numerous institutions, such as the Grenoble Museum and the National Museum of Modern Art in Paris. His sculptural work is equally rich; in addition to his wall mirrors, he also created flower-shaped floor mirrors.
