Description

Mid-19th-century Italian console table, crafted from gilded wood. The top is made of Macchia Vecchia marble, known for its distinctive veining that adds an element of sophisticated elegance. The band beneath the top is adorned with engraved foliage motifs, which continue along the curved legs, lending a classic dynamism to the entire structure. The legs feature a spiral design, typical of the period, which enriches the piece with a sense of artistic fluidity. It has some areas where the gilding has flaked off and a missing piece on the left leg. Ideal for spaces that call for a touch of history and refinement. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this piece requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
