Hervé Richard (born in 1952) is a French painter, aquaculturist, and sailor based near the Atlantic (notably in Le Croisic), known for his seascape watercolors and his "thalassographies" inspired by the coastal landscapes of Brittany and the Loire. The artist has dedicated numerous works to the shores of the Atlantic Ocean, the Loire Estuary, and Brittany (such as Le Croisic and Dinard). His work on water explores transparency and the movement of the tides, often capturing maritime atmospheres closely tied to
