160 EUR

Signature : Fernando AGOSTINHO

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Glass paste

Description

A magnificent, asymmetrical, ovoid sculpture made of thick, hand-blown glass. The piece subtly plays on contrasts in texture and finish: A remarkable technical achievement in glass that is entirely frosted/etched. The back and sides are studded with organic reliefs reminiscent of flower buds or textured frosted spikes. The polished front serves as a translucent window, revealing a stylized floral center in a vibrant emerald green. A delicately speckled white corolla appears suspended at the center, creating an impression of organic movement frozen within the material. Excellent condition, no chips, no cracks. "F69" marked beneath the base along with the signature. Height 15 cm × Width 10 cm Weight: 1 kg 200g. Fernando Agostinho is a master glassmaker and major contemporary sculptor on
