Description

Indoor hammered copper fountain featuring vines and grape leaves, Dinanderie, early 20th century. A superb and imposing fountain sculpture crafted from solid copper, hand-embossed and hammered, depicting a vine stock adorned with vine leaves, foliage, and grape clusters, resting on a stylized root ball and a wide, multi-lobed basin. An exceptional work of artistic craftsmanship in Art Nouveau-style copperwork. Assembled entirely using tin brazing--no electric soldering. The original copper water circuit is integrated beneath the dome, with historical gravity-fed operation. In good condition, with a beautiful original patina and slight traces of natural verdigris. The piece is sound, complete, and highly decorative. Vine-shaped base: Height 100 cm,
