Description

Antique and significant terracotta bust of a German Shepherd, signed "Marguerite Monot" on the base. The dog is depicted in a naturalistic style. The sculptor paid particular attention to the modeling of the coat, neck, and muzzle, giving the animal an alert and lively expression. 42 cm tall. Good overall condition. Marguerite Monot was a French sculptor active in Lyon and Paris during the first half of the 20th century, best known for her terracotta animal sculptures. Her body of work notably includes depictions of dogs, cats, rabbits, and birds, rendered in a naturalistic style.
