Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

A beautiful piece by Bastian Le Pemp--this large candlestick closely resembles a model produced at the Keraluc factory, where he completed his apprenticeship. Very beautiful glaze. 34 cm tall x 30 cm at its widest point. Signed "Bastian Kemper" on the base. In very good condition. "Jean-Sébastien Le Pemp, known as 'Bastian the Potter,' a potter and ceramic artist in Quimper, had been an apprentice at the Keraluc pottery from the age of 14 until his military service in 1954. Upon his return, after a stint at Henriot, he set up his own business on the Route de Brest."
