Description

Add a touch of authentic elegance and warmth to your home with this extraordinary antique armchair. It is a one-of-a-kind piece that blends the solid craftsmanship of the past with a graceful and highly refined silhouette, making it perfect even for a contemporary home. This antique armchair features a solid walnut frame, crafted in Italy during the mid-19th century (the Louis-Philippe period). The backrest and seat are upholstered using traditional techniques. Its high backrest and contoured armrests create a slender and striking profile, making it ideal for use at a desk. The light-colored damask upholstery features a delicate tone-on-tone floral pattern; this color choice brightens the room and allows the chair to blend seamlessly into classic settings or serve as a striking accent piece in modern
