Description

A seated bronze Shakyamuni Buddha from Thailand, dating from the 19th century, in the Sukhothai tradition. The figure retains an antique patina and the thick casting characteristic of Thai altar bronzes. The Buddha is depicted in a meditative posture, with a serene expression and a well-balanced composition. The traditional lost-wax casting technique and the preserved casting core are visible in the construction. The surface exhibits a natural mineral patina, oxidation, and signs of wear consistent with its age. The condition is that of an antique bronze, with wear and surface alterations; no cosmetic restoration is reported. Dimensions: height 47.5 cm, width 31 cm. Weight: 12.6 kg. Reference: SKU 514.
