Description

A Burmese Shakyamuni Buddha carved from solid teak, originating from Mandalay in Myanmar and dating from the 19th century. The seated figure displays traditional iconography characteristic of Burmese Buddhist sculpture. The wood retains an antique patina and traces of polychrome paint and lacquer associated with its ritual use. The proportions, construction, and surface are characteristic of antique teakwork. The surface shows wear, abrasions, patina, and localized discoloration consistent with its age. The condition is that of an antique object with signs of use; no cosmetic restoration is noted. Dimensions: height 50.5 cm, width 40.5 cm. Weight: 5.4 kg. Reference: SKU 509.
